

There were 5 prizes or Trophies challenged by the team:

- Sprit of Atlantic Challenge
- John Kerr Trophy
- Atlantic Challenge Trophy
- Lance Lee Trophy for Captains Gig event
- Fair Play Award

Sprit of Atlantic Challenge is given to the team that displays the ideals of Atlantic challenge both on and off the water. In 2008 this prize went to Danish crew sailing the gig Solidarite.

John Kerr Trophy - This is for seamanship, judged throughout the contest. Crew's management of their boats at all times on the water before during and after events. In 2008 this trophy went to UK team on Integrite who have demonstrated splendid seamanship during all events and especially during Sack Transfer event.

Atlantic Challenge Trophy – this Trophy is given to the team who get the most points during Sailing, Oars and Sails, Rowing, Slalom, Navigation, Ropework, Jackstay and Man over board races. This year Russian team on gig Dignite was a winner of this price.

Lance Lee Trophy for Captains Gig event went to International team of gig Mechta, and Fair Play Award went to another International team competing on gig Enchante.

Yakobstad organizers also established their own trophy called Yakobstad Challenge. This would be given to the people who made an extraordinary effort for the AC Contest to happen. This trophy, as all the other trophies, is to be passed to the successors during the next Contest. In 2008 Russian AC trustees Zlada Bredova, Lida Plekhanova and Misha Plekhanov got this trophy for their effort to provide gigs Mechta and Enchante to be used as International boats.
